DETAILED ACTION

The RCE filed on 31 October 2007 has been acknowledged.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 was filed in this application after a decision by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, but before the filing of a Notice of Appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or the commencement of a civil action. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the appeal has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114 and prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 31 October 2007 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Claim 7 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 12 July 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakamura (JP 08-187868).

Nakamura et al discloses all features of the claimed recording head as follows:

- A pressure producing device (11)
- A plate-shaped member having a partition wall (3) defining a pressure chamber (4), and ink supply passage (5) and a common ink storage chamber (6)
- The plate-shaped member having a land (9) and an elastic and deformation portion surround the land (clearly illustrated in Figure 2)
- A nozzle plate (1) provided with a nozzle hole (2)
- The plate-shaped member having a first layer (the one forming 3), a second layer (the one forming 9), and an intermediate polymer layer (8)
- Note: the processes recited in the claims are not further limit the apparatus because it does not further define any structure of the claimed apparatus.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3, 4 and 54-56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakamura (JP 08-187868) in view of Usui et al (US 6,158,847).

Nakamura et al discloses the basic limitations of the claimed invention as set forth above and further includes the followings:

- A first adhesive (21) layer bonding the second layer (9) and the intermediate layer (8) and the first layer being formed of stainless steel.

However, Nakamura et al do not disclose:

- A second adhesive layer bonding the first layer (3) and the intermediate layer (8) and the first layer being formed of stainless steel.

Usui et al teach:

- An adhesive layer (7) bonding a stainless steel layer (1) forming a spacer likes the first layer and the diaphragm (5)

It is noted that Nakamura et al's diaphragm (7) includes the intermediate layer (8) having a surface facing the first/spacer layer (3). Such surface is similar to the surface of Usui et al's diaphragm (5). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include an adhesive layer between the first/spacer layer and the surface of the diaphragm facing the first/spacer layer as taught by Usui et al in the teaching of Nakamura et al for the purpose of bonding the diaphragm to the spacer layer.
